

Skiresort Klínovec

Resort description

The biggest ski resort in the west of the Czech Republic is Klínovec. It is situated in the altitude of 860-1244 m and its history goes back to the beginning of the 20th century. The resort offers 18,9 km of skiing slopes and ski tracks of all levels of difficulty.

Advanced skiers will enjoy the slope called U Zabitého and other four red-marked slopes. For beginners and families with children the resort offers a few blue-marked slopes. „Jáchymovská“ slope with its length of 2950 m and width of up to 100 m, it belongs to the longest and widest tracks in the Czech Republic. Night skiing programmes, educational parks for children with moving carpets, freeride track and a popular Funpark with a big variety of obstacles and jumps are at all visitors' disposal. Transport of skiers is provided by four chair lifts and a few smaller lifts. They all meet at the top of Klínovec mountain, so the visitors can easily and comfortably try more slopes.

The ski resort Klínovec offers the ski schools, skiing equipment rental shops, ski service shop and other professional service. There is large capacity parking, restaurants, snack bars and accommodation facilities in local mountain cottages, guest houses and hotels to the visitors' full disposal. Artificial snow system is a matter of course. The skiresort Klínovec is a part of Interski region Fichtelberg-Klínovec, which offers 34 km of skiing slopes, 1 cabin lift, 6 chair lifts and 11 lifts. Transport to the neighboring ski resort Fichtelberg in Germany is provided by ski buses, free of charge. In the vicinity of Klínovec ski resort there are cross-country skiing tracks of high quality. During the summer season the highest point of Krušné hory (Ore Mountains) and the local Trail Park is a very popular tourist destination.
