

Ski resort Kouty nad Desnou

Resort description

One of the biggest ski resorts in Moravia is situated in Kouty nad Desnou. A modern winter sports resort offers long and wide ski slopes suitable for families with children, less advanced skiers and beginners.

The ski resort Kouty nad Desnou is located in the altitude of 580–1095 metres above the sea level. There are five ski slopes of low difficulty. The longest blue-marked ski slope is called Pohodová (Relaxed) and it is 3050 m long, with the elevation difference of 520 metres. Other two ski slopes are also more than 2 km long. The only difficult freeride track is called Hřebenová. All slopes are covered with artificial snow and maintained on regular basis.

The resort offers evening skiing with all slopes being illuminated. Transport of skiers is provided by a six-seat ski lift, three tow lifts, a lift for children and a moving carpet. In the resort there is a children ski park with many attractions and a snowpark with man-made obstacles and jumps at your disposal. There is a sports equipment rental shop, a ski service shop, a testing center, a ski school, free parking, a restaurant and several snack bars.

Accommodation is available in local hotels and guest houses. In the winter resort there are three first-rated cross-country skiing tracks. In summer season you can visit a unique power plant Dlouhé Stráně, a local modern bike park with a rental shop, or use many bike tracks with ideal conditions for cycling, nordic walking, and in-line skating.
