

Prosper Golf Resort Čeladná

Resort description

Prosper Golf Resort Čeladná is situated in a village of the same name, at the foot of Moravia-Silesian Beskydy mountains. The resort was opened in 2001 and it is considered to be one of the biggest in Europe. You will find here two championship 18-hole courses.

This sports and recreational 140 hectare resort is located in the middle of forested hills. It was designed by a famous Spanish golfer Miguel Ángel Jiménez. The resort offers two difficult 18-hole courses suitable for advanced players. The Old Course is located in a forested area, the New Course is situated in a lowland with a number of man-made obstacles. Both courses are 72 par and more than 6 km long. At the full disposal of all players, there is a PRO-SHOP with high-quality sports equipment, a clubhouse and a conference hall. The resort offers training programmes and areas, indoor golfing, a rental shop and trolleys. Visitors are welcome to a local stylish restaurant and an exclusive accommodation in Club Apartments. During winter season the resort prepares three cross-country skiing tracks in the resort.
