

Royal Golf Club Mariánské Lázně

Resort description

Royal Golf Club Mariánské Lázně has a tradition longer than 100 years. The club was established in 1905 in the presence of the English king Edward VII, who became its official patron. In Mariánské Lázně you will find an 18-hole 72 par course.

The original golf course used to have only 9 holes. The additional 9 holes were finished in 1923. From the very beginning the golf resort has been very popular with Czech and foreign professionals. In 1935 the resort held the first Open ČSR championship with the attendance of the best European players. It is still one of the most beautiful and most sought golf courses in Europe. After WW II the development of the resort stopped for many years. The true renaissance came after the revolution in 1989. Thanks to Her Majesty, the British Queen Elisabeth II, the golf resort got the title of the Royal Golf Club in 2003. Two years later Count of Essex and His Majesty Prince Edward attended the 100th anniversary celebration. The championship 18-hole course in Mariánské Lázně is located in the west of Bohemia, in the altitude of 787 m. It was designed by a Scottish professional Robert Doiga from Musselburgh, who personally assisted the construction. Mariánské Lázně golf resort requires a technical game in a magnificent landscape surrounded by forests. You will find here smaller greens, bunkers and other natural and artificial obstacles. There are training greens for groups, families with children and individuals. Visitors will also find a public 9-hole 3 par chipping&putting green, a driving range with 36 teeing grounds. A rental shop with all golfing equipment is at the visitors' full disposal. South of Mariánské Lázně, in Úšovice, there is an indoor club. Two Full Swing simulators are open all year round. Club members get all kinds of different benefits in partner golf resorts as well. Golfers and visitors can visit a local clubhouse, restaurant, club bar or a VIP lounge. The golf resort hosts regular tournaments including European PGA tour, professional golf exhibitions and many other sports and social events. In their free time golfers can have a tour around the world famous spa town with a beautiful colonnade and a singing fountain.
